The Courageous Choice
by Rev. Lisle Gwynn Garrity
Inspired by Matthew 1:18-25
Silk painting with digital drawing and collage

We know precious little about Joseph, except that he's engaged to Mary. When he finds out that she is pregnant, he resolves to end their engagement quietly, because he didn't want to humiliate her. For this reason, Matthew says Joseph is a righteous man. What's fascinating is that Joseph's Bible instructed him to do more than humiliate her. Deuteronomy 22:14 states clearly what to do when an engaged woman is found to have been intimate with a man other than her betrothed: "You must bring both of them to the city gates there and stone them until they die. Remove such evil from your community!" It's not hard to imagine Joseph pursuing a punitive path with Mary, and justifying his actions based on scripture. After all, Deuteronomy is black and white. Instead, he chooses a better way, a more compassionate way, one that may have put him at odds with his own community and his Bible. He decides to not obey Deuteronomy, which is what makes Joseph righteous.

Here we have a story in the Bible of a man who doesn't obey the Bible, and the Bible calls him righteous for doing so. You see, the Bible, like life itself, isn't simple. To be faithful takes wisdom and compassion, not simple obedience. Joseph's willingness to live in the gray, not in the black and white, his decision to err on the side of compassion, that is what makes him righteous. It turns out, God is not looking for people who blindly stand for the truth. God is looking for people who choose life over laws and compassion over judgment.

Our lives are full of choices about how we treat other people. Will we choose compassion or judgment? I don't think we can do both. Jesus' life and ministry demonstrates again and again that mercy triumphs over judgment, and maybe, just maybe Jesus learned that from his adoptive father, Joseph. While our choices do matter, the good news of the gospel is that God's choice of us is what matters most. In the end, your choices, though important, are not the final word, and thank God for that. The story of Christmas is the story of a God who choose the way of compassion and courage and vulnerability for our sake, a God who took on flesh, who put relationships over rules, mercy over judgment, not just once or twice but again and again, forever more, all so that God might be near to us. That's the story of Christmas, and it is the best news any of us have ever heard.

One Struggle to Love,
Rev. Joel A. Esala

CHRISTMAS POINSETTIAS

Interested in ordering a Christmas poinsettia in dedication of a loved one? The order forms are located on the table at the East entrance with instructions. The cost is $10/plant payable by check or cash.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP - DECEMBER 17th

On Saturday, Dec. 17, we will convene (with spouses if they wish to join!) at Der Dutchman in Plain City for breakfast at 9 a.m. (Gather at church at 8 a.m. if you wish to car-pool out to the restaurant.)

Adult Forum Class: December 18, 9 am Speaker - Molly Todd, Quilt Artist

Molly is one of eight Upper Arlington Artists whose work is on exhibit in the church Lounge until Jan. 3rd. Learn how this Middle School Math and Art Teacher, Adjunct Professor in Mathematics at the University Level, and recognized by the Disney Company with an "American Teacher Award for Mathematics" became a Quilt Artist in her retirement. She will talk about how she translates children's original artworks into quilt legacies through her work with critically ill children and their families at Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Ohio. Molly has authored a book about her work, "Threads of Life", available from Amazon.com.

Deep Gratitude for your pledges!
If you haven't pledged, please do so to help us meet the goal to...

RAISE THE HARVEST HOME LOAN RETIREMENT PLEDGE

Thank you, Covenant members! Thanks to many generous pledges, as of early December, we've reached 73% of our goal of $270,000 for the Raise the Harvest Home, Loan Retirement Appeal. Thank you for your financial support to retire this loan for repairs to our roof and HVAC system in only three years.

If you haven't pledged yet, please do so. If you'd like to review the testimonies given during our worship services from October 23 through November 20 about Raise the Harvest Home, then check out the recordings on YouTube, Facebook, or our Website. Each testimony occurs after the Children's Sermon, with the exception of November 20, when Joel Esala speaks before the Offering.

Consider this: If households donate an average of $500 per year for three years, we'll be able to retire the loan quickly and minimize the interest payments. Prayerfully consider the impact of Covenant's ministries on your household and our community. Maintaining our church home helps us continue and grow our mission to be a..... Welcoming, accepting community sharing the Glory of God's love with all!

In Gratitude,

Rev. Joel A Esala, Charlie Bergmann, John Griffin, Cathy Levy, Dana Rudmose, and Betsy Sebastian

Mid-Ohio Workers Association Angel Tree

Mid-Ohio Workers Association (MWA) is deeply grateful to those who donated gifts to the Angel Tree. You are beautifully generous. If you still have an ornament and would like to donate -- gifts must be returned by Thursday, December 15th at 5:00 when we begin the Toy Sort for the Families of MWA in Fellowship Hall.

You are invited to assist in the Toy Sort on Thursday evening (Dec. 15th) starting at 5pm until we finish. Children and parents can work together if they wish.

You are also invited to come to our Holiday Party in Fellowship Hall on Saturday, December 17th. Help is needed to set up from 2 until 4, party from 4-7 (Santa will appear) and clean up from 7 until done.

I hope you will join us for some of these activities. Questions - contact Karen Hjelm at (614) 893-6577 or khjelm43@gmail.com.

Christmas Adopt-a-Family 2022

The Board of Deacons is requesting help in sponsoring Adopt-a-Family for six families who are in the COMPASS and Neighborhood Outreach programs at Broad Street Presbyterian Church. Descriptions of the six families (number of adults and ages of children) are available by contacting John Harder (614-906-0890 or djharder2@gmail.com).

Volunteer sponsors should bring their gifts to Covenant, beginning Sunday, December 11 through Friday, December 16. See Laurie (office manager); she will store the presents in her office. If she is not present, leave your presents behind the reception desk. Alternatively, you may deliver your gifts to Broad Street Presbyterian Church between 9 and 11 am (only) on Saturday, December 17th. The six recipient families will pick up their gifts that afternoon.

Gifts intended for adults should be wrapped, but presents for children should be left unwrapped in a bag along with appropriate wrapping material so that parents will have an opportunity to see and wrap presents for their children.

DEACONS' CHRISTMAS EVE OFFERING

The offering at the Maundy Thursday and Christmas Eve services support the work of the deacons. The Board of Deacons is not funded through the church budget. It is through these two special offerings that the deacons serve our members and the community.

How does the Board of Deacons Serve? Deacons transport members to medical appointments through the C.A.R.E.S. ride program. Meals are prepared and delivered to those recuperating, celebrating births, and grieving. The deacons host memorial receptions. On May 15 our Super Seniors celebrated with a special luncheon and entertainment. Deacons are responsible for communion preparation. They also host the Red Cross Blood Drives. Emergency funding is available for members and those in the community.

Beyond our doors, a monthly breakfast is prepared and served at Ronald McDonald House. Deacons take a meal and join in fellowship with those at Hoge for HM3. We fight hunger through Crop Walk, provide joy by organizing Adopt-A-Family at Christmas, and supply assistance to the Mid Ohio Workers Association. The deacons also extend support to the Mid Ohio Food Collective and COMPASS at Broad Street Presbyterian Church.

DONATE METAL WATER BOTTLES for those who visit the OPEN SHELTER

One of the opportunities to give this Christmas Season includes providing stainless steel water bottles including loops so people who visit the Open Shelter can attach them with a carabiner clip to their backpacks or belt loops. Reach out to Cathy Levy with your questions; she answers a few of them, below:

Question: Why stainless steel?

Answer: We've learned that stainless steel bottles are healthier to drink from; also, they are easier to clean.

Question: What do you mean by "loops"?

Answer: See the picture; each bottle's lid includes a sturdy loop for hooking your fingers through or hooking a carabiner hook through.

Question: What is a carabiner hook?

Answer: These are popular with rock climbers and hikers; these are metal loops with spring-loaded gates used to quickly and reversibly connect components. In this case, with the loop on a water bottle, a carabiner hook helps you attach the bottle to your belt loop or backpack strap (see the picture).

Question: Must we donate a carabiner hook too?

Answer: No, we'll buy boxes full of those and add them to each water bottle to make it convenient for all. If you do decide to donate hooks, make sure they are sturdy with a strong spring.

Question: The deadline is Thursday, December 8?

Answer: We took the first load to the Open Shelter on Friday, December 9th when we brought our monthly delivery of 175 sacked lunches. We intended originally for them to be used in the 150 Holiday Gift Boxes that they provide every year, but for now, they are sharing them with the campers who visit the shelter. In our monthly deliveries to Open Shelter, we bring drinks, including bottled water. We're wondering if high quality stainless steel water bottles will reduce the demand for bottled water, thus improving the impact on the environment. So, we are continuing our request for more donations of these bottles. We will take them with our monthly delivery of the lunches.

The Open Shelter is an Advocacy Center & Day Services Shelter for homeless and marginally-housed people in Central Ohio.

Mission Sewing

This years quilt was given away at the CPW Christmas Coffee. It was won by Betty Winchester. Congrats Betty!

For more information about CPW circles and activities, contact Sandy St. Martin, CPW moderator, covenant@covenantpcusa.org with CPW/Sandy St. Martin, the Circle leader's name or name of the person you wish to contact in the subject line.

WOMEN'S THEOLOGY

Members of Women's Theology will meet December 16 to continue discussion of Brian McLaren's book, Do I Stay Christian? Reading for the 16th extends through Chapters 17, 18, and 19. New participants are always welcome. Meetings are held on Zoom, so check with Susan Imel or Louise Davidson for information and to join the discussion the first and third Friday each month from 9:30 to 11 am.

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT & ADULT LEARNING COMMISSION

The Spiritual Development and Adult Learning Commission is searching for writers for this year's Advent devotional. This is a deeply meaningful way to share your faith, seasonal memories, and family traditions, with your church family during the Advent season. Click here to access the Sign Up Genius to choose a Bible passage and see the guidelines for your contributions, due by November 18.

Wednesday Bible Study 1:00-2:00 pm: December 14, from 1-2 pm, we will continue our study of the book of John. (You can find an overview of John at bibleproject.com.) This gathering will be in person, in the Lounge. We will continue offering zoom for those who cannot meet in-person. Please join us. No preparation is required. Ask for a zoom link from lauriejohnson@covenantpcusa.org

Wednesday Evening Book Study 7:00-8:00 p.m.- Our next book was recommended by Gail Messick to further extend that learning; Gail has agreed to facilitate our discussion. The title is 'A Country Between', written by Stephanie Saldaña. Click on the blue link to get to Amazon. There are copies available at the public library as well. We will meet on Wednesday, January 4, 2023, at 7:00 by Zoom, (just one time) to discuss the entire book. There will be reminders of this meeting in the Wednesday all church email as the time to meet draws closer. Please contact the church or Tori Vazquez for a link.

Following is the Amazon book description.

"When young mother Stephanie Saldana finds herself in an empty house at the beginning of Nablus road—the dividing line between East and West Jerusalem—she sees more than a Middle Eastern flashpoint. She sees what could be home.

Before her eyes, the fragile community of Jerusalem opens, and she starts to build her family to outlast the chaos. But as her son grows, so do the military checkpoints and bomb sirens, and Stephanie must learn to bridge the gap between safety and home, always questioning her choice to start her family and raise her child

6. Water Bottles for those served by the Open Shelter (Cathy Levy, Extending collection)
7. Christmas Joy Offering (Beth Askue)
8. Deacons' Christmas Eve Offering (Bonnie James)

Thank you for considering an opportunity to practice our faith and humanity in service of others in this Holy Season!

CATCH Court Luncheon December 15

Tomorrow, December 15th, Covenant will host the luncheon for members of the CATCH Court program, Freedom and Court staff and mentors. The Task Team working on this event welcomes help preparing and serving food and helping as needed. If you would like to be part of this effort for the CATCH women, contact Barbara Marshall through the church.

SPIRITUAL CINEMA

Wednesday, 12/28, we will gather in the Lounge, at 6:30 pm to watch Mrs. Harris Goes to Paris (2022): a widowed cleaning lady in 1950s London falls madly in love with a couture Dior dress, and decides that she must have one of her own. We will stay for a short time after the film to discuss its merits and message. Come join us.

Opportunity to Serve by Providing Lunch through the OPEN SHELTER

Do you want to do hands-on mission once a month or occasionally? We would love to welcome new people to the Open Shelter Lunch Making Team!

Many thanks to the smaller team who worked on the morning of 12/9 to help assemble and deliver the lunches. We were focused, and we managed to pull it off in time. Whew! We'd love to have more helpers next month!

*Join us! You could help by shopping, pre-assembling, preparing on Friday morning, and/or delivering on Friday morning (see below for details). Our next delivery date is Friday, January 13th or you can help in any future month. We particularly need help with SHOPPING at this point in the year, as some of our top shoppers take winter vacations. Let us know if you can help; it's fun, and shopping can fit into your schedule that week.

Covenant helps out people in need (including people who are homeless and marginally-housed) served by the Open Shelter by providing 175 sack lunches on the second Friday of every month. We revised the menu and process, and we need more volunteers to help out! Here are ways to join in:

- Anytime, donate sturdy, stainless-steel water bottles with a loop that participants can use to carry water easily. Drop your donations off in the marked bin within Covenant's Donation Center, which is in the coat closet nearest the sanctuary. We're hoping to provide more safe, cleanable water bottles to reduce the impact on the environment of disposable water bottles and to support a sustainable future.
- Anytime, you could drop off your clean, lidded take-out containers (reusable disposable food containers) to shelving on the counter under the windows of Covenant's kitchen. We take them to the Open Shelter to help people take home leftovers from donated restaurant meals. When these meals are donated, people are encouraged to take sack lunches with them to-go as well.
- You could help with supplies for the sack lunches; we would let you know the quantity, and you'd deliver them to Covenant's kitchen by the Thursday before the delivery day (church closes at 4pm) or by the second Friday of the month at 8:15, when we assemble the sack lunches. The costs for these supplies may be reimbursed by submitting your receipts to our Financial Administrator, Tanvi

Bhowmik. Ways to help include:

- You could shop for supplies (like paper bags and napkins from GFS, drinks, plastic bags, sandwich makings, bananas...)
- You could make 45 or 90 bags of unsalted nuts at your home.
- You could make 45 or 90 bags of baby carrots at your home.
- You could make 30 Peanut Butter and Jelly sandwiches at your home.
- You could help make 160 ham and cheese sandwiches with the team at Covenant's kitchen, and then assemble the lunches into paper bags and pack them in boxes and into a car (or two) between 8:00 and 9:10 am on the second Friday of the month.
- You could transport the lunches and other supplies from Covenant to the Open Shelter on Parsons Ave. by 9:30 on the second Friday of the month. This takes either two drivers or one driver with a larger hatchback car or minivan.

By splitting up the work, we can get more people involved sharing the Love of Christ in our community. Join us!

Questions? We would love to answer them! Would you like to join us in one or more of these ways? Fantastic! Please contact us to discuss this and/or sign up at covenant@covenantpcusa.org.

HM3 UPDATE – HOGE'S, MUSIC, MESSAGE, MEAL

The next meal will be served by the Elizabeth Circle on Saturday, December 17th, and they are serving the Beef Stew recipe used in January and February, 2022.

To help as a chef or as a server from 4-7pm, please contact Mona Connolly.

See also the CHRISTMAS GIVING OPPORTUNITIES for ways to help with the Christmas Party they'll host that evening.

Hoge Presbyterian Church offers the HM3 program every Saturday for its community in Franklinton including Music, Message, and a Meal. Area churches assist with the Meal, and Covenant creates and serves a hot, home-made meal every 3rd Saturday. The wearing of masks is optional for both servers and guests.

Current attendance at HM3 leads us to bring enough for 50 meals.

- We're opening up the Signups for 2023! Please sign up as an individual or as a group. We need help starting February 18th and every 3rd Saturday thereafter.
- In the past, Covenant members cooked in their own homes and then brought the food to Hoge to serve from the Hoge Kitchen. Alternatively, you can prepare the food as a group in the Covenant kitchen and carry it to Hoge. For example, in April and June, teams prepared most of the meal in the Covenant Kitchen as a team activity and then brought the food to Hoge.
- Groups have signed up to serve in the months throughout the year of 2022 and for January 21, 2023... THANK YOU! Group leaders: If your group is lacking servers or chefs, let Cathy know; she has contacts for volunteers who can join your team. Chefs: Your expenses incurred in cooking may be reimbursed through our Financial Administrator, Tanvi Bhowmik.
- If you or your kids would like to help out as a chef and/or server (from 4-7pm) during one of those 3rd Saturdays where a group already is signed up, go ahead and contact that groups' leader, we'll bet they would LOVE to include you on the team! You can find the leader's name on the website, or you can ask Cathy Levy, and she'll connect you up.

Signup or Learn more through this tool: <https://bitly.com/CovenantHM3SignUp> or by contacting Cathy Levy (send an email to covenant@covenantpcusa.org and in the subject line type HM3/Levy). SANCTUARY FLOWERS

You may sign up for flowers to be placed in the sanctuary for Sunday worship to honor loved ones, a special occasion, or just to the glory of God. The dedication information will be listed in the Sunday bulletin. The arrangements will cost $40.

To order flowers, please contact the church office by sending an email to lauriejohnson@covenantpcusa.org by Tuesday of each week that you wish to have flowers in the sanctuary. Let the office know which date you are requesting, your name, contact information and any dedication information. You may request future dates as well. Payment can be in cash or check but must be received prior to the specific date of worship service.

PRAYER CHAIN

Contact Laurie Johnson (lauriejohnson@covenantpcusa.org) if you would like to join the members and friends of Covenant who pray for those requesting our prayers. The prayers will be relayed to you via email from Linda Van Aman. It is asked that you include the prayer request in your daily prayers for a week. To submit a prayer chain request, please send an email to covenant@covenantpcusa.org and in the subject line type Prayer Chain. Note that the person for whom prayers are requested must give permission.
