

Dear Church Family,

How are you doing today? I trust you are in the “Christmas Spirit” and looking forward to a wonderful time of praise and worship. This morning, our choir will be presenting the message of Christmas through song, so sit back and enjoy the story that never becomes old! Christ’s birth and the surrounding events that ultimately look forward to the cross and resurrection are a wonderful reminder of the great love of God toward us. This morning as we celebrate afresh His amazing and awesome love, let’s thank Him not simply with our words, but our lives.

Please remember to check the schedule over the next couple of weeks. With Christmas and New Year’s Day landing on Sundays, our schedule will be a bit different. Also, don’t forget our Christmas fellowship on Wednesday night. Ugly Sweater Alert! This is going to be hilarious. Come on out and have a great time as we gather with a meal, some fun, and a reminder from God’s Word of the true meaning of the season.

Stephanie and I had a great time visiting family this past week. We are blessed and a bit proud of Jonathan as he graduated from college. Thank you for your prayers and support for us. Let’s all be in prayer as we celebrate Christmas and as we look toward a New Year. God is good all the time, and we are excited to see what the Lord has in store as we follow Him. I hope to see you on Christmas Eve as well as Christmas Day, but if not, I hope you and your family have a truly wonderful Christmas together. The Lord bless you.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Erik
