Please pray for Ben, Sara, and their five kids as they continue to transition to their new life and ministry in Taichung.

- Pray for more workers "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." (Luke 10:2 ESV)
- The Persecuted Church In Egypt, a person's religion is labeled on their national identification card. If someone decides to leave Islam and become a follower of Christ, they cannot change their ID card. This creates challenges for churches to minister to converts who are still officially Muslims. Churches in this region sometimes face extreme hostility from the Islamic community, and those who work among former Muslims regularly face death threats. Despite the risk, our Christian brothers and sisters in Egypt understand the need to shepherd and disciple new followers of Christ. One front-line worker who serves former Muslims said, "To do this work is to be close to heaven."
