He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone."¹⁸

He answered him, "It is written: Do not put the Lord your God to the test."¹⁹ The devil took him to the temple and said, "If you throw yourself down, your angels will support you, and the Lord will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone."²⁰

As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men."²⁰ At once they left their nets and followed him.

²¹Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and followed him.
