Philippians 2:1-4 NASB

Therefore if there is any encouragement in Christ, if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, ² make my joy complete by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose. ³ Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves; ⁴ do not merely look out for your own personal interests, but also for the interests of others.

Journey Group Questions

1. Are there any people you consider to be your "spiritual children?" How or when do they bring you joy?
2. From Philippians 2:1, what are the five resources provided by God for us to live in unity? How would you put these in your own words? How do these provide the foundation for unity and humility?
3. Pastor Dave told us to "let His love fill your cup, then pour His love out on that seemingly unlovable person." How do we do this?
4. For those who are married, why is "joint agreement" better than "compromise?" How can you put that principle to work to strengthen your marriage?
5. What does humility look like biblically? What passages would you look to for your description? How does this translate into "considering one another as better than ourselves?"
6. Look through the lists of spiritual gifts in Rom 12:6-8 and 1 Cor 12:4-11. Which of these gifts are also the privileges and responsibilities of all believers? How does realization this free us up to "look out for the interests of others?"
